Says	Thinks
“Explain this topic simply.”	“I need an answer I can understand, not just a definition.”
“Can you quiz me?”	“Do I really know this topic?”
“Summarize these notes.”	“What should I remember for revision?”
“What should I learn first?”	“How do I move from beginner to advanced?”

Does	Feels
Enters a concept, question, topic, or passage.	Curious but sometimes overwhelmed.
Clicks a feature button and waits for a response.	Wants quick feedback and clear structure.
Uses the result for study or revision.	More confident when the content is organized.

Pains

- Complex explanations and unfamiliar terminology.
- Long notes that are difficult to revise.
- No clear learning sequence.
- Lack of practice questions.

Gains

- Friendly explanations and answers.
- Five-question active recall quiz.
- Concise summaries.
- Beginner, intermediate, and advanced learning order.
